INFLUENCE

AS WE THIS month recall the greatness of Washington and Lincoln let us not forget that true Knighthood, too, leaves its impress upon mankind. While Templary is not a religion since religion is the relationship between the individual and his God, yet the noble purpose of Templary is by influence to make men honest and upright, true to their God, faithful to their country and to unite them in bonds of charity, morality and fraternity.

SIR KNIGHTS—A committee under the chairmanship of the Junior Warden has planned an interesting evening. A large attendance will make the evening a success. Do your part—Notify the Recorder you plan to be present.

Have you tried to induce a Companion to become a member of the oldest Commandery in this Grand Jurisdiction? It is a selling point and we need a number of petitions if we are to reach our quota.

CHARITY

Templars must never forget that charity suffereth long and is kind, doth not behave itself unseemly, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things and endureth all things.
